ELECTRONICS & COMMUNICATION ENGINEERING

Issue No. JULY 2018/ODD/ VOLUME 01

EDITOR : CREATIVE CLUB

DIRECTOR SPEAKS.....

Dear Friends,

People who are learning and practicing engineering have to read story books or hear music or draw arts regularly to have balanced mind and to avoid getting bored.

Giving imagination to projects for making them beautiful is a balanced activity that makes both the right and left brains to work together. This will give fulfillment for the project engineer.

Those who are doing research should have custom of imagination about the research. Without imagination people will often get bored while doing research activities. But doing research with imagination, things will go hand in hand and people will not get bored but be enthusiastic.

Bending the sky as bow and twisting sand as rope are illogical imaginations came true. Scientist Albert Einstein discovered that space around large planets are bend (sky is like bow). Fiber optic cable is made of silicon dioxide (sand).
